

The 2D histogram displays the frequency of different combinations of nodes and edges. The x-axis represents the number of nodes (0 to 60), and the y-axis represents the number of edges (0 to 100). The data is concentrated in the lower-left region, indicating that most graphs have a small number of nodes and edges. There is a small cluster of nodes at approximately (10, 80).

